What is a "Thunk"?

A function that delays an action until later

An action creator function that does NOT return the action itself but another function which eventually returns the action